I see why there's confusion, our instruction manual states "members of the site team should be available during the CSTAG deliberations".

Typically, they have not been in the room, but "available". What do you want?

I've also pinged some members for their input.

Karl – For the CSTAG deliberation portion of the meeting on the last day, can contractors be present during deliberations? I am looking to get back to Keegan, Ed Garland, and John Kern whether can join us to support any questions that may come up.

I've heard varying answers from folks here in Region 2.
